

Mini-Worlds Knowledge Mat

Simple food chains

Sticky Knowledge about Mini-worlds

- A food chain is made up of animals and plants. It shows what each animal eats.
- Herbivores are animals which feed on plants
- Omnivores are animals which eat both meat and plants eg foxes and humans
- A carnivore is an animal which eats other animals (meat)
- A habitat contains all the elements needed for an animal to survive : food, water, shelter
- Fossils are the remains of plants or animals which lived a long time ago.
- An animal is alive if it eats food, breathes and has young.
- A lifecycle describes the journey of a living thing from beginning to end.

Subject Specific Vocabulary

habitat	A place which provides everything a living thing needs to survive : food, water, air and shelter.
extinct	An animal or plant which was alive but now there are no more of them living on planet Earth,, fossil	Fossils are the remains of plants or animals which lived a long time ago. Often their remains are left as an imprint in rocks.
food chain	This describes what each animal eats. Arrows are used to show which animal eats what.
lifecycle	This describes how a living thing begins life, grows and matures

